

TABLESCAPING

Floral Daydream

A round table is elegantly set for a meal in an outdoor setting. The table is covered with a white tablecloth featuring a large, detailed floral pattern of tulips in shades of pink, red, and green. Several white chairs with high backs are arranged around the table. On the table, there are white plates, glassware, and folded orange napkins. A large, vibrant bouquet of tulips in various colors (red, pink, yellow, and purple) is the centerpiece. The background is filled with lush greenery, including palm trees, and the scene is bathed in the warm, golden light of late afternoon or early evening.

Under the Cypriot sun, where light lingers softly across linen and glass, Table Stories unfolds its quiet poetry. Rooted in Austrian craftsmanship yet shaped by Mediterranean warmth, each setting becomes a composition of colour, texture, and fleeting bloom. Flowers gather like gestures, plates like pauses, inviting a slower kind of celebration. Here, the table is not simply set, but felt — an atmosphere of ease, intimacy, and sunlit joy.

A refined mix of storied houses and contemporary accents come together, each piece chosen with quiet intention. Meissen porcelain and Christofle cutlery anchor the table in heritage, while Dior glassware and Lalique stemware lend a sense of light-catching elegance. Layers of texture unfold through Summerill & Bishop linens and Kim Seybert details, balanced by playful notes from Mrs. Alice and Mario Luca Giusti vases. ►
