The furnishing items created by Mario Luca Giusti have reached the U.S. This made in Italy brand, very popular among luxury brands, is now available at Barney's, the American chain of luxury department stores headquartered in New York City, in the department stores of New York City, Beverly Hills, Chicago, Dallas and Scottsdale.

This is the latest collaboration of the design brand, after the launch of the collection with Missoni Home at Maison & Objet, composed by the set of melamine plates Scales and Stripes&Flowers.

The next stop will be the windows of Christian Dior Parisian boutique, where in the coming days the glasses Whisky and Lente will be shown.

Meanwhile the company, which counts among its fans Roberto Cavalli and Philippe Starck, has closed 2011 with 2.4 million euro turnover, +25% than 2010. Exports grew by 30% thanks to the new markets: Russia, Lebanon, Nigeria, Thailand, Morocco and Kuwait.
